It's official. Now you can uke in Boulder. I'm giving lessons at HB Woodsongs in Boulder. The kind folks at this seminal acoustic music instruments store have welcomed me to the Flatirons and I'm already feeling the good vibes.

Give me a call at 970.231.3235 if you want more information, or head on over to HB Woodsongs to take a look at their ukes and other things musical.
